

Patricia Ann Morin

December 31, 1953 - October 13, 2025

Patricia Ann Morin, 71, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away peacefully on Monday, October 13, 2025.

Patricia was born in Springfield, Massachusetts, to the late Guilo and Barbara Misitano. After earning her bachelor's degree in 1977, she dedicated her career to helping others as an occupational therapist with Easterseals, where she made a lasting difference in the lives of those she served.

In 1987, Patricia married the love of her life, James G. "Jim" Morin. Together, they built their home in Middleton, Massachusetts, and shared 33 wonderful years of marriage, while raising their son, Jeff, before Jim's passing in 2020. Upon retiring in 2017, Patricia and Jim fulfilled a long-held dream of moving to where they spent their honeymoon: St. Augustine, Florida.

A breast cancer survivor, Patricia faced challenges with strength and grace. She found joy in reading, gardening, puzzles, and spending time with her beloved stitching group. She loved traveling, especially to Ireland, Canada, Hawaii, and around the continental US, and cherished time spent with family and friends. Patricia was an avid fan of "Dancing with the Stars" and "Jeopardy", and it was well known that when Jeopardy! was on, interruptions were not allowed.

Patricia had a deep affection for her dogs and a lifelong passion for all things Disney: movies, theme parks, cruises, jewelry, Christmas decorations, and collectibles. If Disney made it, she likely had it and treasured it.

She is survived by her son, Jeffrey Morin, and his wife, Kelsey; Jeffrey's best friend, Michael Keenan, whom Patricia lovingly called her "second son"; her sisters, Brenda Misitano and Julie Ratay; and her brother, David Misitano.

A memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, October 24, 2025, at St. Johns Family Funeral Home in St. Augustine. Inurnment will follow at San Lorenzo Cemetery. Flowers are greatly appreciated.

“ Pat is an integral part of childhood memories from birthday parties and beach days to driving to the movies all stuffed in a car (yes-without seatbelts) after holiday meals. Jim and Pat had a wonderful sense of humor and were quite the hospitable team that kept our extended family in touch. The last thoughtful call was to my father on his 100th birthday just this past September and our parting words were that we would catch up in person at the end of this month. She will be greatly missed. Our thoughts are with you all during this sad time.

“ Gone too soon...
Pat & I met 47 years ago. We were in our early 20s, working as Occupational Therapists with handicapped children at Shore Collaborative. We quickly became good friends. Outside of work we shared some really great times; weekends on the Cape, camping, hiking & skiing in the White Mountains, attending parties, and Friday nights out on the town. We invited our siblings to join us at times, and that's how Jim & Pat met, became friends & eventually fell in love. I'm comforted knowing that they we now be together forever.

“ I have had the honor of knowing Pat for 28 years. I met through my wife Karen, who has known her since freshman year of college. As I've got to know Pat, I have grown to love her. The first time I met her was when Jim, Jeff and her flew out to be in our wedding. The day after our wedding, we had brunch for all of our out-of-town guests. We opened our gifts and organized Pat, jumped right in to write down who gave us what.

As I got to know her, I also realized how smart she was. Ask her a question about anything, and she would know the answer. Watching Jeopardy since college probably didn't hurt either!

On her trip to Hawaii, she stayed a few days at the Disneyland hotel. She invited us to join her at the pool.

She was an excellent tour guide. I was working in Rhode Island and had a few hours to kill in Boston before my flight home. She treated me to a tour of Salem. It was excellent! She showed me where things took place. She really knew her history.

While working in Virginia, Pat invited me to stay the weekend at her sister Julie's house. The three of us went out to eat at a pizza place. It was a great weekend getting to know her sister and seeing just how close they are.

I had some questions regarding post-op pain. My doctor ordered a scan, Pat said to wait a week, and the pain will go away. Pat was right, the pain went away after one week.

If my wife and I had different opinions on something, we would call Pat. Somehow, Pat would always take my side! She would tell my wife to "stop picking on my friend Jim!"

Pat you were a blessing in my life. I love you and miss you.

“ Pat was my best friend for 51 years (5 decades!) We met in 1974 at Eastern Michigan University at Wise Hall girl's dorm. I really cannot imagine my life without Pat in it. She was an angel to me, loving me and watching over me all the years. We were in each other's weddings. We would talk on the phone for hours over the years. I also gained Jim, the love of her life as a friend, and shared many memories with them. Jeff was the light of her life, I know so many stories of joy that he brought her. Pat was kind, intelligent, accomplished, funny, fun and loving.

“ How is it possible that my beloved sister Pat is gone from this world? How can I possibly fill the void she left in my heart? She was my best friend, my companion and my partner in crime. We have had a lifetime of adventures together that I will cherish forever. I find peace in my belief that she is happy now in the arms of her husband Jim and that she is looking over us now and smiling knowing she left behind a beautiful legacy. I will miss you every day. I love you, Pat!!

“ Patty was more than just a cousin to me. I considered her one of my sisters along with Brenda, Julie and Lisa while David and Paul are my brothers. I cherish the memories I have of going skiing with you and our trips to the Cape as kids and young adults. I always had a wonderful time in Middleton with you, Jim and Jeff at holidays. Our "family Reunions" at the Outer Banks are very special memories I cherish. I loved how when we would talk on the phone, the conversation would last for hours. I will miss you terribly and will always love you.
