“ I remember Lisa’s dad fondly. Most of my memories involve cooking. I remember him being such a great cook! My favorite of his masterpieces were: Scotch eggs, steak pot pie, and of course his famous cheesecake. Lisa and I brought one to festival at school and it sold out before we could even get a bite, so he had to make us another one. I also remember him building a beautiful hearth base for our family’s wood burning stove growing up. As a family that ended up being our favorite place in the house. Pat, Lisa’s dad, will be greatly missed!

With Love,

“ I was so sorry to hear of Pat’s passing. I considered him a good friend. We used to live to play chess when we had time. He did so much for me at the rink by building the front and back seating barriers. He was the best mason I ever saw bar none! I will miss him even though I haven’t seen him for many years.

Accept my condolences,
Roy Morton

“ Fondly remember Pat as a neighbor and friend in Mystic Islands forty or more years ago. Pat used his craft to put in a concrete patio and a brick steps on our home way back when. It's still here. Great job Pat!! I remember when we had a laugh when I said I liked his accent. He commented that I was the one with the accent. He preceded to mimic me with my South Jersey accent which brought on laughter. He had a proper accent which I admired. RIP my friend Gods speed!!!
