

Paul Lawrence Corey

May 16, 1963 - May 17, 2026

Paul Lawrence Corey, 63, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away on May 17, 2026, just one day after celebrating his 63rd birthday. Born on May 16, 1963, in Lubec, Maine, Paul lived a life shaped by deep generosity, quiet resilience, and a sense of humor that could catch anyone off guard and leave them laughing. Paul graduated from high school in 1986 and promptly enlisted in the United States Army, beginning a chapter of service that reflected his steadfast character. He approached his duties with the same quiet determination that defined every part of his life, earning the respect of those who served alongside him.

Paul was preceded in death by his father, Al Corey Sr.; his brothers, Carleton, Bobby, Larry, and Randy Corey; and his cousin, Nancy Theriault. He is survived by his mother, Audrey O. Frail of Houlton, ME; his siblings, Al Corey Jr. and partner, Gloria of Addison, ME, John Corey of Whiting, ME, and Stacey (Jason) Corey-Brown of Seabrook, NH. Paul is also survived by many cousins, including Wanda Corey and partner, John of Lubec, ME; Shelly Corey (Teea) Tinker of Lubec, ME, Jolene (Micheal) Tinker of Lubec, M, Sherry (Craig) Mitchell of Campobello, N.B. Judy (Paul) Bilodeau of Winthrop, ME, Frank Theriault of Trescott, NIE; and Martin (Colleen) Morrison of Cape Neddeck, ME. He leaves behind his niece, Kayla (Adam) Pillsbury of Amity, ME; nephew, Jayden Corey, Cayne Corey, and Morgan Mayers-Corey; and his great-nieces, Marley and Addy Pillsbury, who brought him endless joy. Paul is also survived by his best friend, James (Jennifer) Anderson of St.

Augustine, FL, whose friendship remained a constant source of strength and laughter. And not to be forgotten is the much larger extended family he cherished, both near and abroad.

Paul will be remembered not only for the warmth he brought into the lives of those who knew him, but for the way he made the world feel a little lighter.
