“ Leon and Boys, Renae and I were not very close lately, but at one time we were. I regret that we let life get in the way. I will miss the comfort of knowing that she is just across the river. I do take comfort in knowing that she is with Jesus and Aunt Phyllis. I want think that Aunt Phyllis was there waiting to welcome her into heaven. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Renae how fortunate am I to call you friend/sister. Your absence is felt down to my soul. The lights have dimmed with your passing here on earth but I know you are being celebrated with our Heavenly Father. You are the most courages person I know. What a legacy you leave behind for Leon and the boys. I love you and will remember you always. To Leon, Noah, Weldon, Tony, Karen and Jack her watchful Angels may you find comfort in the love and memories you all shared.
