

Pedro Rivera

September 22, 1948 - May 1, 2020

Pedro Rivera was born in San Pedro Sula, Honduras on September 22, 1948 to Mateo Banegas and Juana Rivera. Pedro has four siblings, 3 brothers and one sister. Pedro also has three sons (one deceased and four step-sons (one deceased)), and four Grandchildren. Pedro was a merchant marine for over twenty-years and then came to the United States and became a Master Plumber. During his years here he met his wife, Genoveva Ramos aka Jenny, and they married and lived together for over twenty-years until her passing in 2017. Pedro then retired from plumbing and moved to Florida with his step-son where he enjoyed the weather and hanging with his dog, Puto Ramos. (He and his wife had a sense of humor). Pedro was a self-educated individual and loved watching documentaries, the news, and YouTube video (Loved things about mechanics). Pedro was a humble and generous man who helped everyone and never had an unkind word to say about anyone. He'd give you the shirt off his back because helping people was what he did. Pedro passed away unexpected on May 1, 2020, in his sleep. God needed his Angel back. Pedro will be missed by his family and friends in the United States and Honduras. Gods Speed you lovely man. You are now with your wife and sons
