“ It's so surreal....because honestly I still expect you to be sitting in your chair watching Lifetime when we walk in the house! =(Even though my time with you was much too short....you left a big impression on the hearts of my girls and I. You took us in as if we were family all along, from the start! I'm going to miss you, but I know you are looking down on everyone alongside your wife Eileen, which I know is where you want to be! I feel privileged to have known you...even if it wasn't long enough! Rest in Peace with Mrs. Coppola and all the Angels Mr. Coppola! xoxo

“ Pete and Eileen were two great friends. I remember spending many summer days playing board games with them in their back yard. Eileen was like a sister to me. Pete was always there to help when ever needed. I know that he is at peace with my best friend and that someday we shall all meet again. Will miss talking to both of you.
Love Eileen
