“ To the family: I express my deepest condolences and will place you in my prayers. May God be with you and comfort you through this time of grieving. Look to God for your strength and courage to see you through. Brother Pete, We The Greater St. Mary's Baptist Church Choir will miss you very much, and we thank you for being so gracious and giving of your time, You became such a big part of our Choir family each Christmas at the Lightner Museum and for that we are very grateful. Now is your time to rest in peace. We Love You
