“ We had the true blessing of getting to know Charles and Phyllis when they began attending Switzerland Community Church with daughter Margie and her husband Jim Rockenbach. Phyllis was a kind and gentle soul who loved her family and her Lord with all her heart. We mourn her loss but rejoice that she is home with her Savior. Prayers to her dear Charles and her loving children.

“ I remember so well Aunt Phyllis and Uncle Charlie's last visit to Cape Breton , they wanted to go to Governors and hear the fiddle music. It was in October and the day of the big flood . I picked them up and we had a great but short time listening to the music. I spent some time with them at the hotel taking pictures and talking. They enjoyed it and I know I did
R I P my dear Aunt Phyllis you are loved.
