A devoted wife and mother, she found great joy in cooking for and caring for her loved ones, making their house a home filled with warmth and kindness.

Rachel moved to St. Augustine two years ago following a car accident, so that her daughter could care for her during her recovery. Her family was always her greatest priority, and she cherished the time spent with them, particularly in her later years.

Rachel is survived by her daughter, Donna Grissom (Charles); son, Adam Dewayne Morgan], and many grandchildren and great grandchildren, all of whom will remember her for her strength, compassion, and unwavering love.
