

Rafael Figueroa

November 27, 1940 - April 18, 2020

Rafael Figueroa, passed away at the age of 79, on April 18, 2020 at Stuart F Meyer Hospice House in Flagler Beach Florida. He was born in Arecibo Puerto Rico to the late Julio Ernesto Figueroa and Maria Martinez Cruz. He is survived by his wife, Mygdalia Figueroa; his son, Rafael Figueroa Jr. (Amanda); his daughters, Maryann Figueroa (Angel Torres); Margarita Figueroa Perez (Carlos Perez); sister, Hilda Navarro (Adolfo); 5 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

Rafael moved to New York City from Puerto Rico as a teenager. He began to work as a shoemaker before beginning a career in printing and bookbinding, working for 3 major brokerage houses; Oppenheimer, Smith Barney and Paine Webber in New York City, before retiring from Cunningham Graphics in New Jersey.

Rafael was witty and charismatic with a love for people and life. He loved the ocean and enjoyed boating, swimming and fishing every chance he got. He loved music and dance and never missed the opportunity at karaoke. He was loved by many and everyone he met became a lifelong friend. His death is a great loss and he will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

Memorial and a celebration of life will be held at a later date.

St, John's Family Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

*To my buddy Ralgh, whom I love very much! You always use to say to me, I'm the man " an where is my cafe!
Whenever I go to heaven, we will have a cup of cafe together!
You will be truly missed!
Until we meet again!
Love Carol "your friend next door"*

To my father, you were the greatest father in the world and you always made sure to let me know that you loved me. I've loved you my whole life and your absence now will never change that. I won't say goodbye but rather see you later. Until then, I love you Papi and I will always be thinking of you. Love, MaryAnn
