Ralph Werner Hasenbalg

November 30, 1934 - March 12, 2017

Ralph W. Hasenbalg, age 82, passed away on March 12, 2017 at the Bailey Family Center for Caring in St. Augustine. He was born to the late Werner and Ellen (Westberg) Hasenbalg in Binghamton, NY where he grew up. In 1958 he graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute where he received his bachelors of Science in Engineering Management. He was a two sport athlete at RPI and served as Captain of both the basketball and golf team. Upon graduation he served his country in the United States Air force from 1958-1966. Ralph was a pilot and served dozen of missions in the Vietnam War. After being honorably discharged from the Air Force Ralph lived in Saugerties, NY where he was employed by IBM. While at IBM he worked a variety of management roles throughout his 30 year career. In 2016 he moved to St. Augustine with his wife, daughter and son in-law. Above all, Ralph loved his family and sports. He was a devoted husband, loving father, and grandfather, known affectionately as "Pepe". Those that knew him admired that he was "quick to listen, slow to speak and not given to anger" He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Francoise Hasenbalg; daughter, Linda Guske (Jim); sons, Norm Hasenbalg (Denise Starkey) of Catskill, NY, Marc Hasenbalg (Rahnee) of West Nyack, NY, Michael Hasenbalg (Elizabeth) of Saugerties, NY, Scott Hasenbalg (Kerry) of Danville, PA; grandchildren, Robert Hasenbalg, Amanda Hasenbalg, Jake Hasenbalg, Zach Hasenbalg, Cole Hasenbalg, Maya Hasenbalg, Hunter Guske, Leah Hasenbalg, Annika Hasenbalg; daughter in-law, Maureen McKeon. They are having a private family service.
