From there he ventured north to The University of Arkansas where he graduated in 1984 with a degree in Accounting. While at the U of A, Randy was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and he also grew to become a lifelong fan of the Razorback athletic department. In 2006, the beaches of St. Augustine called him home, and he moving to back to the place he loved where opened his own practice, Randall E. Bivings, CPA, PA. Randy was very passionate about the many things he loved in his life. In particular, he had a tenacious spirit when it came to history and the love of his country in which he was a member of the Sons of the Confederate Veterans and Sons of the America Revolution in Lawrenceville, GA. He enjoyed learning about military history, the Civil War, and confederate soldiers. This passion also led him to visit many different battlefields and military cemetery's spanning along the entire eastern US with his father and brothers. Randy also loved watching sports, his beloved Arkansas Razorbacks, celebrating Christmas, spending time with his friends, his family, and especially the beaches in the St. Augustine area. Randy was preceded in death by his grandparents Cephas and Irma Gilbert, T. G. Boaz, and Gene and Leona Bivings, all of Palatka. He is survived by his parents Gene and Nancy of Atlanta, GA, brothers Richie (Barbara) of Little Rock, AR and Ronnie of Atlanta, GA, sister Nancy of Atlanta, GA and niece Megan Bivings of Little Rock, AR. He also is survived by many aunts and uncles including Col. Don (Glenda) Bivings, Joanne (Lewis) Jones, Susan Matthews, Ted Boaz, and a multitude of cousins. His family and friends mourn the loss of his unique humor, witty spirit, and compassionate soul, but his memory will live on in our hearts forever. “ After working with Randy for 16 years so closely, it is hard to imagine him not being here to do our audit anymore. He and I had a lot in common; our love of college football(although we didn't see eye to eye there), types of music, food, sense of humor(sometimes we were the only ones that got it) and many more. I can't imagine what you all are going through but want you all to know that we, the City of Buford, felt like he was one of us and we have definitely lost one of our own. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Take care.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Randy. I have known Randy the entire time he was the auditor for the City and can truthfully say Randy was a "trip" and I mean that in the nicest way possible. I shared Randy's love of Christmas, he had a tiny tree in his office here at City Hall and if Randy was here that tree was lit even if it was Easter. I teased him constantly about "stealing" the tree and his little snow globes, ornaments that adorned the little tree. He had a unique sense of humor and I will miss our chats greatly...
