Randy Fulford

December 8, 1944 - June 23, 2016

Randall Lee “Randy” Fulford, age 71, of Elkton, FL passed away in St. Augustine of lymphoma at the Bailey Family Center for Caring on June 23, 2016. Randy was born on December 8, 1944 in Youngstown, Ohio to Allen Earl and Donna Jean Fulford. He grew up in Montgomery County Maryland and graduated from Montgomery Blair High School in 1963; along with his classmate Goldie Hawn. He moved to Fairfax County Virginia as a young adult and joined the Fairfax County Fire Department in 1968. He relocated to St. Augustine in 1986 where he enjoyed boating, fishing, NASCAR, and being a school bus driver/aide for St. Johns County School District for many years. He was predeceased by his parents, Donna and Earl Fulford. He is survived by daughter, Kimberly Phillips of Jacksonville, FL; sons, Scott (Anne) Fulford of Stuart, FL, Kyle Fulford and Kevin Fulford of Elkton, FL; sisters, Bonnie Fulford of Manassas, VA and Carol Wood of Palm Coast, FL; three grandchildren, Tyler Phillips, Corey Phillips, and Jacob Fulford along with his former spouse and caregiver Martha Fulford. A private family memorial is planned at a later date. In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to Community Hospice of N.E. Florida in the memory of Mr. Randall Fulford. The family would like to thank the nurses and staff of The Bailey Family Center for all of their kindness and care. Arrangements are under the care of St. Johns Family Funeral Home.
