

Raymond C. Brostean

December 27, 1954 - October 6, 2024

Raymond C. Brostean, 69, of St. Augustine, Florida, passed away on Sunday, October 6, 2024. Born in Dearborn, Michigan, on December 27, 1954, Raymond was a dedicated family man and a devoted public servant.

Raymond is survived by his beloved wife of nearly 49 years, Pamela Thibodeau Brostean, whom he married on December 20, 1975. Together, they raised three children: Rachel Brostean Neff, Randi Brostean Simmons (husband Brad Simmons), and the late Robyn Brostean Roberts. He took great pride in his role as a grandfather to his grandchildren: Paul Newman Jr. (and great granddaughters Adley and Adalyn), Edward Neff, Emmelie Neff, Bryan Roberts, Ethan Neff, Katie Simmons, Bailee Simmons, and Brody Simmons. He also cherished his sisters, Laura (Ben) Timmer and Valerie Dusman, along with their children.

Raymond served as a police officer in Michigan and Sunrise, Florida, dedicating many years to protecting and serving his communities. He continued his law enforcement career with the St. John's County Sheriff's Department until 2024. In addition to his work in law enforcement, he spent 23 years as a truck driver for Old Dominion in Eastern Tennessee.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, October 12, 2024, at the family residence. For further information, please contact the family.
