“ Lynn, I can hardly find the words to tell you how sad and sorry I am for your loss. Your notes and pictures you post reflect so much happiness in your face. To have to face such a loss so young must be harder than words can describe. I pray you stay strong and find that wonderful memories turn your tears into smiles as you remember. We are so far away from each other, but if there is anything I can do, please let me know. That is what friends are for, and thanks to the magic of Facebook, miles mean little when it comes to keeping people close. Hugs, my dear MN friend and Italy roomie.

“ Mr. Hess was a phenomenal teacher and really engaged his students. It was a pleasure to learn from him and I was honored to take him to the star banquet many years ago. My sympathies to his family and friends he left behind.
