Raymond A. Newsome Jr

Jan 31, 1964 – Mar 12, 2026

Raymond A. Newsome Jr, (Ray), 62, of St. Augustine, FL, took his last lap on Thursday, March 12, 2026. Born in Hampton, VA, on January 31, 1964. Ray was an avid NASCAR fan, fisherman and an over the road trucker which was a career that allowed him to embrace his love for travel and adventure.

Raymond is preceded in death by his parents, stepmother, grandparents and brother Buddy. He is survived by bereaved long-time domestic partner, Sylvia McGee, sisters, Kelly Bohaick (Robert) and Bianca Martin, sister-in-law Kathleen Buntin Quiles. Wife Melissa Newsome, children of the heart, Jordan Carter Drury, Justin Carter (Loren), Joseph Carter (Amanda), Nikole Cochran (Brandon). Nieces Ashley Brooks, Shaylynn Frattarelli-Siler, Nicole Burgos Buntin and Nephews Carson Martin and Justin Newsome. He was a great - Uncle to at least four children and wore that title well. Also other aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many life- long friends both far and wide all over the world with all of his travels including Europe.

Ray was loved by many he was just that kind of guy. He loved life, everyone that knew him knew that. They also knew just how much he loved his grandchildren, they were the light of his life! Colton, Peyton, Kellin, Kristian, Talyah, Lydia, Amelia and Sutton were so lucky to have him as their “PAPA” he absolutely cherished them.

Ray was not just a NASCAR fan and a fisherman he loved football as well especially college ball "Rolltide" I guess he'll have the best seat in the house to them all now.

We love you Ray, Rest easy now your work here on earth is done. This is not good - bye only

"See ya later"

A celebration of life will be held and will be announced.
