

Raymond Nathan Wight

July 22, 1943 - August 27, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Raymond Nathan Wight, who left us peacefully on August 27, 2025, at the age of 82. Born on July 22, 1943, in Bangor, Maine, Ray lived a colorful life dedicated to service, family, and community.

Ray was a proud Vietnam Veteran, serving as a helicopter pilot from 1967 to 1971. After his military service, he went on to make a significant impact as a civil engineer for Belvidere Construction in Palm Beach, Florida, where he dedicated many years of his life until his retirement in 2005.

Ray loved life in Florida, having lived in Thomson, GA, Port St. Lucie, and Palm Beach before finally settling down in St. Augustine in 2012. He had a passion for RVing and cherished his time at the beach, where he could unwind and enjoy nature's beauty.

Ray was predeceased by his parents, Richard and Jane Wight and his brother, Richard Wight. Ray is survived by his beloved wife, Mary John of St. Augustine, a daughter, Jennifer Kuehl and her husband Jason, and grandchildren, Evan, Madeline and Nolan Kuehl, all of Slidell, La.; sister, Sandra McCarthy and her husband Howard of Marengo, Ill; nephew, Jeff Gross; and nieces, Rhonda Wight and Sherri Haldenwang (whom he walked down the aisle on her wedding day). Together, they created countless memories filled with love and laughter that will be treasured forever. He will be deeply missed.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

MW

“ He has at least 3 daughters that he never acknowledged. Walked away and erased us from his life.

Melissa Wight - October 03, 2025 at 03:42 PM

MT

“ Such a great man huh ? He walked out on my mother and Two sisters 50+ years ago and never looked back !! To include 4 grandchildren now and two great grandchildren !! Never once gave a shit or tried to find them, Real POS !!

Mike Thurston - October 03, 2025 at 02:08 PM

CW

“ I'm sure he'll be missed by some

Crissy Wight - October 03, 2025 at 01:39 PM

MW

Yes, the daughters he never acknowledged. There's at least 3 of us.

Melissa Wight - October 03, 2025 at 01:46 PM

SK

“ Can still see him cheering my grandson on at his football game when they came to NJ for Mary's reunion. He was a bright light.

Susan Kuhn - September 11, 2025 at 03:49 PM