

Reginald Francis Frye

February 21, 1940 - August 27, 2024

Reginald F. Frye, 84, passed away peacefully at his home on August 27, 2024, with his beloved wife by his side. Born in Washington, D.C., Reginald spent his teenage years in Arlington, Virginia. He was a proud graduate of St. John's Military School in Washington, D.C.

After beginning his college education, Reginald made the decision to serve his country by joining the United States Air Force, where he became a Navigator on B-52 bombers during the Vietnam War. He dedicated many years to his military service and retired as a Lieutenant Colonel. During his time in the Air Force, Reginald also pursued further education, earning a Master of Business Administration (MBA).

Following his retirement from active duty, Reginald continued to serve in the Air Force Reserves and began a successful career with Washington Gas Light Company, where he was entrusted with overseeing security operations. In 1996, after a long and distinguished career, he retired once more and relocated with his family to St. Augustine, Florida.

Reginald was passionate about golf and was an active member of the St. Johns Men's Club. He treasured the time spent with his wife, children, and grandchildren, always placing family at the center of his life.

Reginald is survived by his loving wife, children, and grandchildren, who will forever remember his kindness, dedication, and unwavering love.

He is survived by his wife, Peggy Frye; sons, Reginald Frye, Jr. (Carole) and Jonathan Frye (Jessica); grandchildren, Ashley, Lindsey, Lacey, Ellie and Evan. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph and Josephine Frye and his siblings, Ralph Frye, Jr, and Florence Bradley.
