Reginald Edward Taylor

July 18, 1919 - June 22, 2014

Reginald Edward "Reggie" Taylor, age 94, of St. Augustine, passed away on June 22, 2014 at Moultrie Creek Nursing & Rehab Center. Reggie was born and grew up in Birmingham, England and he moved with his family to the United States at the age of 7. He served his country in the U.S. Army during WW II and was involved in some of the pivotal battles of the war. He later trained to become an electronics draftsman and worked for Beckman Instruments for many years in Cedar Grove, New Jersey. He and his beloved wife May had been residents of St. Augustine since 1981, moving here from Cedar Grove, N.J. An avid golfer, Reggie was a longtime member of the Shores Golf Club and enjoyed playing at the Ponce de Leon Golf Course. As a retirement job, he worked as a starter and ranger at both courses. He also enjoyed dancing and attending SABDA ballroom events. He is survived by his son, Stan Taylor and his wife Lynda of St. Augustine and grandsons, Erich Taylor of St. Augustine and Kevin Taylor of Los Angeles, Ca. A memorial service with military honors will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, June 30, 2014 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home, with Rev. Craig W. Eby officiating. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
