“ I just Googled your name and this is what I found. Not sure what to think... I had the honor of working with you for many years, I thought of you more as a father than a boss. I got married in March of this year, and guess what- hes a sheet metal worker. We talk about you all the time. I would have loved for you to have met him. I learned alot from you in those six years. I still think you rock!! I'm not going to cry for you b/c I know your safe now. Although it hurts your gone, I know your at peace once again! I wish everyone could have seen you the way I did! I love you Robert! Thanks for all you have done for me.
