Robert Eugene Denham

March 5, 1942 - December 3, 2015

Robert E. Denham, formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, died peacefully at home in St Augustine Dec. 3, 2015, surrounded by his family. He was 73. Bob grew up in Westport, Connecticut and graduated from Williams College and NYU School of Law, also winning a fellowship in law at The University of Paris. He held a variety of law positions in New York and later in Cincinnati, worked for the newly-formed Environmental Protection Agency, and in retirement did children's advocacy as a volunteer. A life-long athlete and tennis teacher, Bob was also devoted to music and became an accomplished jazz pianist in his later years. He is survived by his wife, Sharyn Scull of St. Augustine; two children, Zoe Robertson of Mt. Kisco, N.Y., and Clarke Denham, of San Francisco, CA; two step-children, Brooke Devlin-Brown of Chicago, IL, and Tyler Scull-McWilliams, of Cincinnati, OH; and six grand-children. Family and friends were Bob's greatest joy. He will be missed here in St. Augustine and in Vermont, where he and Sharyn spent summers. A memorial is being planned for Vermont in the coming months.
