“ Norma, TJ, Danny and families.... We are at a lose for words, and know that there is nothing that we could say that would make your loss any easier. We can only say that we loved Bob. He always had a way to make you laugh. I'm not saying that he didn't sometimes have a bit of a bad attitude...but he wouldn't have been Bob without it! The two Bobs loved reminiscing whenever we were together....(If we had to hear that story about them dragging an entire tree back to the campsite for fire wood one more time....LOL!) He loved you guys so much. He told us so many times how proud he was of TJ and Danny and what they have done with their lives. He loved that both his sons were serving their country as he had done. Norma, he loved you so much...even though he didn't always show it...you could see it in his face and the things he would say about you when you weren't around. He was a guy that could never show his sensitive side...but it was there...you just had to break through that tough exterior. We will always remember the good times we shared and will miss him sooooo much! Love, Bob, Sharon, Amber and Ashlee
