Robert Scott Parkman

October 1, 1958 - March 9, 2018

Robert Scott Parkman, age 59, of Crescent City, FL, died unexpectedly on March 9, 2018 at Flagler Hospital. Born in St. Augustine, Scott grew up in Ft. Lauderdale and moved to Putnam County as a young adult. He worked many different occupations during his life including a tree surgeon and as a deck hand on a tug boat. He also bought and sold used furniture and antiques, and was Proprietor of Twice Upon a Time Antique Furniture in Palatka. Scott's real passion in life was his music. He was a talented musician and composer and was a longtime member of the southern rock band "Loco" during the 1980's and 1990's. He was loved by his family and friends, and he will be deeply missed. He was preceded in death by his father, "Bob" Parkman. He is survived by a daughter, Britani Parkman McNeely (Shawn) of St. Augustine; a son, Travis Parkman of Jacksonville; his mother, Evelyn Wynaught (Charlie) of Crescent City; a sister, Kelly, his former spouse and friend, Tammy Vaughn of Palatka; and grandchildren, Conner and Weston. Private services will be held. St. Johns Family Funeral Home in is in charge of arrangements.
