

Robert Bruce "Magoo" Wright

December 5, 1962 - October 2, 2019

Robert Bruce "Magoo" Wright, Jr., age 56, of St. Augustine, passed away on October 2, 2019 at the Bailey Family Center for Caring. A native and lifetime resident of St. Augustine, Bruce was a 1981 graduate of St. Augustine High School, where he played football for the Yellow Jackets. A talented musician, he formed his own band, "The Plowboys," and played in many local venues throughout the years. Bruce also coached youth football with Pop Warner, P.A.L. and at Beacon of Hope Christian School. He worked at San Lorenzo Cemetery for 38 years, many of those years as Grounds Director, and most recently as Operations Manager of the cemetery. He also owned and operated St. Augustine Monument Company for many years. Bruce was well known and loved by the community. Known as "Magoo" to many, he truly never met a stranger. He could be seen frequently leaning against his truck enjoying a long conversation with friends and strangers. He loved and respected the Catholic faith and was a member of Lighthouse Church of God. More than anything Bruce loved his family! He will be remembered as a loving husband, father and a wise man with a huge heart. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Joan, and his brother, Richard Johnson. He is survived by a daughter, Brittany Tipton of St. Augustine; sons, Ryan Wright, and his wife, Danielle, Phillip Wright, and his wife, Julie, and Robert Wright, and his fiancé, Caity Ginn, all of St. Augustine; his parents, Bruce and Glenda Wright of St. Augustine; his mother, Jane Johnson, and her “ Magoo was a great man. Growing up we worked together all the time splitting fire wood and cutting trees with Wrights Tree Service. Magoo loved football as much as I do. We always use to go to Crookshank and play ball every weekend. We would always go hunting. I remember him telling me he wanted to record music. I remember the first day he walked into Brooks recording studio and started to sing and record. He never stopped singing. Magoo started to work at San Lorenzo Cemetery at age 18 and he loved that job. I will miss you my friend and cousin. You can sing all the time now in Heaven. See you one day.
