Robin Elizabeth Nadeau

February 20, 1926 - January 6, 2012

Robin Elizabeth Nadeau died peacefully at her home on Friday morning, January 6. She was 85. Bernard Nadeau, her husband of nearly 60 years, died 6 years ago. She is survived by her three children, Stephen Nadeau (Gainesville, Florida), Christine Introna (Atlanta, Georgia), and Marc Nadeau (St. Petersburg, Florida); by seven grandchildren, Nicole Simmons (Baton Rouge, Louisiana), Hillary Nadeau (Eugene, Oregon), Leslie Nadeau (Oakland, California), Alyson Winters (Charlotte, North Carolina), Gabriel Introna (Atlanta Georgia), Hugh Nadeau (Augusta, Georgia), and John Grantham (St. Petersburg, Florida); and by 5 great grandchildren. In a cynical age, and at a time of life when most are world-weary, Robin never accepted the possibility that there was not hope, and had indomitable faith that ordinary people, working together, could achieve important things. In inspiring others with her enormous energy and her passion for liberty, equality, justice, and the care of our planet, she proved this to be true. Memorial services will be held at 9 a.m., January 23, at St. Anastasia Catholic Church, 5205 A1A South, Saint Augustine, with Father Seamus O'Flynn officiating. She would be especially honored by donations to one of the causes closest to her heart. Checks may be sent to: The City of St. Augustine Beach Tree Fund in memory of Robin Nadeau, c/o St. Augustine Beach City Hall, 2200 A1A South, St. Augustine Beach, FL 32080. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Thanks very much, Robin, for your being an activist for improved Medicare for All, for sending me information, including your letters to the editor, and for your monthly financial support of the website www.medicareforall.org As you may already know, I canceled your monthly subscription (donation) payment, so that's one less thing for your family to do. I ready that you are a Roman Catholic. Therefore I write what is probably familiar to you: May your souls and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. I trust that you are doing fine, Bob Haiducek P.S. to family: I filled in my private information, but no response is necessary to me. I just wanted to take the time to write this note
