“ Robin was such a wonderful friend. I will miss our talks and messages. We became friends after attending a school together in south Florida. We laughed so much that week, that we often had tears rolling down our cheeks. I knew then, that this was the start of a beautiful friendship. Over the years, we had many talks about our faith and how we could never understand how someone got through the loss of a family member or friend without faith and knowing they would see that person again. While I am saddened and cry that my friend has gone, it is the faith and that amazing Grace through Jesus Christ that sees me through my grief. I know that we will be laughing together again one day.

“ I cherish my last memory of Robin, when we met together at a Celebration of Life for our mutual friend and relative, Charlie. As we sat together, we spoke of our hope in Christ even in the midst of hard times. Robin was a favorite of mine from the time that we first met - so kind and sweet and down to earth. I will miss knowing you're here, Robin, but I look forward excitedly to seeing you again "soon and very soon", when we will again enjoy each other's company and worship our Lord together.

“ Robin and I spent a lot of time together when we were married to our first husbands. I have fond memories of hanging out at her house with her mom, dad, sister and brother. As we both went our separate ways and I moved to Jacksonville in the 90s, we didn't keep in touch quite as often, though we leaned on each other at different times of need. I believe the last time we spoke, it was at Baptist South, where her husband was admitted for a knee problem. I will miss her and wish I had seen her before moving to California. Thank you for the good times and thank you for your support when it was needed. Love you. ❤️

“ Robin was my first contact at the Sheriff's office 32 years ago. I was hired to fill her position as she was promoted . What a wonderful, mentoring , caring lady she was. She taught me so many things in my 12 years there before I moved on to purchasing at the Utility Dept. Gone way too soon. Love to Brian , Sabrina , Brian and all the Grandchildren . So grateful Kevin and I were able to visit Wed . It is hard to believe in just a few short days she was called home to be with her Lord and Savior. I know her family takes great comfort knowing they will see their Wife, Sister , Mom and Grandmom again some day . Love you Robin ❤️
