

Ronald Earl "Ron" Clark

June 25, 1948 - February 5, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Ronald "Ron" Clark, who left us on February 5, 2025, at the age of 76. Born on June 25, 1948, in Miami, Florida, Ron was a kind-hearted soul whose vibrant spirit touched everyone he met.

Ron proudly served in the United States Navy from January 12, 1967, until his discharge on October 19, 1970, reaching the rank of SHL3. After his service, he returned to his home in St. Petersburg, Florida and became a familiar face in his community. He met the love of his life, Kathleen Burns, and married her in July of 1980. They started their married life in Hernando, Florida where Ron owned and operated a video rental business and later managed a convenience store. His dedication and friendly demeanor made him a beloved figure among customers and friends alike. Ron loved a good joke and would talk to anyone. He truly never met a stranger. He was also dedicated to his family and was a great father.

Ronald was preceded in death by his parents, Homer and Mercedes Clark, and a step daughter, Sandra Gray. He is survived by his loving wife, Kathleen Clark, and his cherished daughter, Christine Clark, step sons, Dale Hogan, John Hogan, Mike Hogan, Russell Hogan (Melissa), Alan Hogan (Neetu) and many grandchildren and great grandchildren. His family, along with many friends, will miss his warmth and laughter dearly.

Private services with military honors will be held at a later date.

Rest in peace, Ron. Your legacy will live on in our hearts.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
