Roy Dwight Corrigan

January 12, 1937 - February 15, 2015

Roy D. Corrigan, 78, St. Augustine, died February 15, 2015 at Flagler Hospital after a brief illness. He was born in Elmhurst, Illinois and had resided here in St. Augustine for the past 30 years, moving here from Key West. Roy served in the U.S. Navy and then worked for BellSouth in Key West where he raised his family and built there home. They all loved fishing and enjoyed the water. He and his late wife, Aspacia, moved to St. Augustine 30 years ago to be near their family. They had a little homestead with goats, chickens, and pets. He may have retired from the phone company but he never quit working. He loved sports and was always at games supporting his son and grandchildren. Roy wanted to be remembered as a nice person and his family and friends will remember him as such. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. Graveside services will be held 11:00 a.m. Friday February 20, 2015 at San Lorenzo Cemetery. A visitation will be held from 5-7 p.m. Thursday February 19, 2015 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. He is survived by his children, Michael Corrigan and his wife, Lesha, St. Augustine, Virginia "Ginny" Sprague and her husband, John, Orlando; grandchildren, Michael Corrigan II and his wife, Erica, John Sprague and his wife, Ellen, Natasha Corrigan, Monique Corrigan, Sarah Wells; great-grandchildren, Tres, Nina, and Griffin Corrigan, Kinsley Sprague, and Isaiah Wells; and his beloved pets, Pedro, BlackJack, and Winnie. He was preceded in death by his wife, Aspacia and a son, John. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
