

Ruth Naomi Haskins

December 2, 1937 - May 11, 2026

Ruth Naomi Haskins, 88, passed away peacefully on May 11, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on December 2, 1937, in Carlisle, Ruth lived a long and meaningful life defined by hard work, strength, compassion, and devotion to those she loved.

Ruth worked as a Greenskeeper for 40 years, dedicating herself to her work with determination and pride. She was a strong and independent woman whose nurturing spirit touched everyone around her. Above all else, she treasured her family and the time she spent with them and her beloved pets. Ruth was preceded in death by her mother, father, and all her siblings. She was the last surviving of 18 children, carrying with her a lifetime of memories, resilience, and family history.

She leaves behind her loving sons, Donald Clark; John Haskins and his wife, April; and James Haskins; her daughter, Laura Iler; her granddaughters, Jessica Hagan and Amber Iler; and her two cherished great-grandchildren, Dusti and Elijah.

Ruth's warmth, strength, and steadfast love will be deeply missed by all who knew her. She ended each day with the words, "See you in the morning, good Lord's will," a simple phrase that perfectly reflected her faith, humility, and enduring spirit.

Her family will carry her memory in their hearts always.

A celebration of life will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 27th, 2026 at Hastings Community Church, located at 307 E. Cochran Ave, Hastings FL 32145.
