“ I knew Ryan from the beginning of school at Washington elementary. He was always kind and friendly. Indian lace included everyone. He was always pleasant and outgoing. God be with his family. God be with his family and may he rest in heaven now in God's arms.

“ Knowing Ryan for decades at F.S.D.B., our friendship deepened during a period of 9 years while I was Principal of the Deaf Department and he the H.S. IEP Coordinator. Ryan and I worked closely together and even went to daily lunch duty together for those years. We shared lots of good times both on and off campus. He was a great advocate for the students and he had a good relationship with the parents of those students. Working every day was even more admirable when you knew he was in constant pain and did not complain. He did not let his personal difficulties interfere with his job.

Ryan was very proud of his family and his priority outside of the work place. Another was his love of the Jaguars. I doubt anyone was more loyal to the Jags than Ryan & his sidekick, Marge. Even with his pain and logistics, he attended most of the Jags' home games with his group of tailgaters before each game and after parties following the "wins".

Ryan is missed by the legion of loved ones. Obviously he touched so many of us who love him. Another friend, Hugh Lewis

“ Mr. Anderson was a jewel of a man. He was such a help to the Beacon of Hope Sports Program for many years. He not only volunteered while Anna was a student at the school but he continued volunteering to help at the gate for sporting events even up to this past basketball season. He will truly be missed! I could always count on him to give me the latest updates on the Jacksonville Jaguars.

“ Ryan was a dear friend and one of the most courageous people I’ve had the pleasure to know.

He faced adversity every day but always had a smile when he was with me.

We enjoyed many conversations during daily lunch duty and after we retired we had many long breakfasts together at local restaurants.

I will miss him dearly because I love Ryan Anderson.

I’m sure we’ll be together again.

Mike Gaura

I was so sad about Ryan’s passing. I enjoyed many hours at IEP meetings and discussing different issues with Ryan. I admired and respected him.

I know Ryan loved the Jaguars!! Mike and he spent a lot of time talking about sports!

I am happy that we were able to spend time with Ryan recently. I believe that he’s in a better place now and not suffering. Until we meet again dear friend.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Anderson family in their loss. I had the privilege of calling Ryan my friend since we first met in high school. I will always cherish the memories he was a part of and I will always remember his kindness, his warmth and his willingness to help others. Ryan lived his life fully and with integrity, meaning and faith. He found his purpose in helping others and strived to make a difference. I know that he did. He certainly was an example of how to rise above the challenges and setbacks he faced. Ryan shined a special light on all of us who loved him. May we honor Ryan by passing that light forward. “ I had the pleasure of being Ryan's friend in Jr. and Sr. High School. Many very happy memories of going thru that period of life with Ryan. He gave me the honor of standing up for me at my wedding to Tara Haag in 1977. I regret losing touch after that and am very sad to hear of his passing. My sincere condolences to his family and friends. Reading his other memories sounds like he never changed from how I remember him. Great guy!

“ I grew up with my uncle Ryan coming to Illinois for so many christmases. He seemed to always be the life of the party! I remember swimming once with him when we were in Florida and I thought I could beat him in a swim race, but he crushed me. He was very strong! I'm so thankful for the friend he was to my dad. We look forward to eternity with you, Uncle Ryan!

“ Ryan and I dated on and off for three years in high school. I admired him so much for how involved he was — playing football, serving on student council, and helping plan school dances and events. He had incredible enthusiasm and energy, and best of all, he could always make me laugh.

We spent so much time together that he became part of my family. My dad gave him free haircuts and loved visiting with him. He spent time talking with my incredibly sweet mom — and once jokingly asked me, “Why can’t you be more like your mom?” That was Ryan — always teasing, always smiling. He would often stop by just to take our dog for a walk.

Over the past forty years, Ryan remained a special part of my family. He made visits to my parents’ home, sent thoughtful surprise gift baskets for special occasions, and spent long phone calls with me simply catching up on life.

Ryan was kind, loving, generous, and full of humor. He will always hold a very special place in my heart — and my 95-year-old mother would absolutely agree.

You will be deeply missed, Ryan.

“ How incredibly blessed are the members of Shepherd of the Coast Lutheran Church in Palm Coast, FL, to have had Ryan as an active partner in our ministry. We especially appreciated his long-term leadership of the Education Committee. Ryan was passionate about Christian education. He participated in Bible studies and boldly shared his vast knowledge of scripture, his faith, and his life experiences that might challenge others to question their faith. He knew the will of God the Creator and encouraged those who questioned God's love to "get right with God". He reached out to the homeless and disadvantaged with courage and strength, boldly sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ wherever he went. Ryan's family members and friends have our deepest sympathy. GOD has called this faithful servant home, and we know Ryan's life with Jesus will be everything he hoped for. We are so happy for Ryan and look forward to seeing him again. Sharon + Andy Andresen

“Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord, after 44 years of suffering through dozens of surgeries and living as a paraplegic, my brother Ryan has been welcomed into his heavenly home. Like never before have we experienced such intense grief and JOY at the same time. Joy because Ryan is now walking again and standing before his Lord and Savior without pain which in recent months was extremely debilitating. Grief as Ryan was a close friend and brother whom I knew for nearly 68 years. We walked through the fire together through many trials. But Ryan prayed and yearned to meet Jesus face to face and on Monday night his prayer was answered. Please pray that the peace that surpasses all understanding will be upon Ryan's wife Carolyn, son Nyle, and daughter Anna while they process this loss and grieve as a family. To God be the Glory for great things He has done!”

“ I had the privilege of being Ryan’s best friend for 62 years. When you say that number out loud, it doesn’t even seem possible. But that’s how long he’s been part of my life — through childhood, through growing up, through all the seasons life brings.

Ryan wasn’t just my friend. He was my constant. He is the guy who would answer the phone no matter the hour. The guy who would sit with you when life didn’t make sense. We shared more memories than I could possibly fit into two minutes — laughter that hurt your stomach, stories we probably shouldn’t repeat, and quiet conversations that only best friends understand.

Over 62 years, you see everything — the good days and the hard ones. And through it all, Ryan’s loyalty never wavered. He had a steady heart. He cared deeply about his family and the people in his life. If you were lucky enough to be his friend, you knew you had someone in your corner.

Losing him leaves a space that can’t be filled. But I’m so grateful for the time we had. Sixty-two years of brotherhood, of trust, of shared life. Not everyone gets a friendship like that. I did. And I’ll carry that gift with me every day.

Ryan, thank you for the memories, the loyalty, the laughter, and the years. I’ll miss you more than words can say. But I’ll see you again, my friend

Ryan and I taught together at FSDB. We had a field trip to Msrineland. He drove some of the students in his car and I drove the school van. After returning to The D&B the students crawled out of his car..... leaving him in the drivers seat and his wheelchair in the trunk..... Ryan had a good laugh as he knew the students couldn't hear him calling their name to come back and get his chair!! He had to wait for someone passing by to get it for him. We laughed about that all school year. He was a wonderful encouragement to me as a first year teacher. I will always remember that about Ryan, he had the gift of Laughter
