Salvator Michael Cummo

September 11, 1925 - June 26, 2016

Salvatore Michael Cummo, age 90, of Palm Coast, passed away peacefully at his home on June 26, 2016. He was born and raised in Staten Island, New York and later served his country for the U.S. Navy during W.W.II and was one of the few survivors of Normandy Beach. After his service for the Navy he went on to be a music teacher and later retired from the secret service where he worked for 18 years. In 1970 Salvatore and his wife moved to Florida where they co-owned a café called The Lighthouse Café. He was a very loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and great-great grandfather. He is survived by his daughters, Beth Espey, Patti Wagner; sons, Mike Cummo, John Cummo, Chris Cummo, 9 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife of 68 years Elizabeth Cummo. A graveside service will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Monday, July 5, 2016 at San Lorenzo Cemetery. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
