Salvatore Raymond Materia

November 30, 1932 - June 17, 2014

Salvatore Raymond "Sal" Materia, age 81, of St. Augustine, passed away on June 17, 2014 at his home with his family by his side. Sal was born, raised and educated in Boston, Mass. He lived in Orange County, California for 30 years where he worked as an Electronics Technician, most recently for the Remex Corporation. In 2004, he moved to St. Augustine, where in partnership with his wife and family, he founded and operated Roots and Wings Learning Center at World Golf Village. The learning center was step of faith and a labor of love for Sal where he was affectionately known as "Pops" by the children. He is survived by wife of 41 years, Lucita "Lucy" Materia; a daughter, Josephine Anne Materia, and a son, Emmanuel Raymond Materia and his wife, Ruby, all of St. Augustine; a sister, Natalie Valerio and her husband, Clement Sr., of Wolcott, Ct., a step sister, Angela Grosso of Winthrop, Ma., and five grandchildren. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 21, 2014, at San Sebastian Catholic Church with Father Thomas Walsh officiating. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ I am a community volunteer and I was sorry to hear of the loss of Salvatore. I too have lost many loved ones and I know that the pain that is experienced can be great. However, one thought that has encouraged me and many others can be found at Revelation 21:4. May you find solace in the following scripture. Please, feel free to visit www.jw.org.
