

Samuel Philip DiMuzio

August 11, 1934 - November 12, 2021

On November 12, 2021, not content to continue without his beloved wife Patricia who departed this earth on August 4th, SAMUEL P. DIMUZIO of Saint Augustine, Florida, decided to join her.

Sam had lived 87 good, productive and happy years.

He was born Savario Filippo DiMuzio on August 11, 1934 and raised in the Germantown section of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His parents, Italian immigrants Rosa Rinaldi and Domenico

Sabatino DiMuzio, met in Palmerston, Pennsylvania in 1919 and married there. Sam graduated

Immaculate Conception Grammar School in 1947, and then North Catholic High School in 1951 and La Salle College (now La Salle University) in 1955. After college, Sam was offered a position at IBM, where he worked for many years until his retirement.

At a CYO dance in Philadelphia, Sam met the love of his life, Patricia Ann Burgoyne, and they married on January 3, 1959 at St. Athanasius Church in the West Oak Lane section of Philadelphia. Their 62-year marriage produced five children, three of whom were born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and the last two in Ridgefield, Connecticut where the family had relocated in 1964. After retirement, Sam and Pat moved to Saint Augustine, Florida.

Fifty-six years ago, at Sam and Pat's kitchen table, a group of determined and stalwart theatre lovers banded together to found the Ridgefield Workshop for the Performing Arts, which has taken its place as one of Connecticut's premier theatre companies, still creating art today. While continuing his work at IBM, Sam was also an elected member of Ridgefield's school board.

Sam absolutely loved to read and was an avid fisherman. For many years, while the family lived up north, the DiMuzio summers included happy days at the beach in the Outer Banks, North Carolina and Avalon, New Jersey, where Sam and Pat welcomed family and friends to join them. Their generosity was limitless, and there was always room for one or a dozen more at their dinner table or in their home. They took in many strays, animals and people, and loved nearly every minute of it.

Predeceased by his parents and his siblings Adante "Don" DiMuzio and Lucy DiMuzio, he is survived by his sisters Mary Arcari and Alieria "Ollie" Salera, his children Rose DiMuzio, Louis

John DiMuzio, Jeanne Marie DiMuzio Walti (Jean-Marc), Patricia Ann "Trish" DiMuzio, Ann

Alvera "Vera" DiMuzio Campanella (Sean-Paul), his favorite and only grandchild, Jackson

Maximilian Walti, and by many cherished relatives, in-laws and dear friends.
Sam loved his family deeply and unconditionally and lived his life fully.

“Attention must be paid to such a man.”

Graveside Service at 2:00 PM, Monday, November 22, 2021, San Lorenzo Cemetery, 1635 US

1 South, Saint Augustine, FL 32084.

Contributions in Sam’s memory may be made to the staff at Community
Hospice and Palliative

Care in Jacksonville, Florida (www.communityhospice.org/give). Their loving service to both Sam

and Patty was selfless and angelic.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

NOV 22. 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM (ET)

San Lorenzo Cemetery
1635 U.S. 1 South
St. Augustine, FL

Tribute Wall

“ St. Johns Family Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Samuel Philip DiMuzio

St. Johns Family Funeral Home - November 22, 2021 at 09:49 AM

SC

I married his beautiful daughter Vera and Sam was nothing less than awesome. He will forever be respected and honored within the Campanella family.

Sean Paul Campanella - November 22, 2021 at 08:46 PM

TM

That was wonderful.

Thomas McDevitt - August 24, 2024 at 12:27 PM

TM

“ God bless you Mr Dimuzio and Ms Dimuzio. You were always good to me. I always enjoyed being at your home. Great pasta. Peace to you both always. Thomas M cDevitt

Thomas McDevitt - August 24, 2024 at 12:19 PM

“ 18 files added to the album Life Tributes

St. Johns Family Funeral Home - November 22, 2021 at 09:48 AM