

Sandra Kay Carter

August 16, 1956 - September 17, 2023

Sandra Kay Carter passed away peacefully in her home on September 17, 2023. She was born on August 16, 1956, in Canton, Ohio to Ellis and Marian Imes. She is survived by her husband of forty-five years, Wayne Carter, as well as her three daughters, Carloyn (Joseph) Segura, Sarah (Chase) Rideman, and Barbara (Trustin) McDonald, her two brothers, Bill (Valinda) Imes and Rich Imes, and five grandchildren whom she infinitely adored; Miguel, Kylee, Carter, Layla, and Isla.

Sandy moved from Ohio to Charleston, SC in 1975, where she and her husband met while he was serving in the Navy. Longtime residents of St. Augustine, the pair spent time living in California and Pennsylvania before eventually moving to the Sunshine State. A loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend, Sandy inspired those around her with her generous spirit, quiet strength, and unwavering positivity. She loved attending concerts, going to the beach, gathering with friends and family, and most especially, spending time with her grandchildren. She enjoyed reading, gardening, cooking for her family, and crafting. She was kindhearted, hardworking, and fun-loving, remembering every birthday, celebrating every holiday, and helping whenever she saw it was needed. Sandy was adored by all and will be dearly missed. A Celebration of Life to honor her memory will be held in Sherrodsville, Ohio in the spring.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ I am so sorry to hear of Sandy’s passing she was my mother ms best friend in high school. Wayne and her were both friends of my dads. When I was little she taught me how to tie my shoes! She was so loved by so many!! I am so sorry Wayne!!!

Tracy Baker - September 23, 2023 at 04:45 PM