

Sandra Eastman

August 15, 1944 - May 1, 2026

Sandra Jane (Raynor) Eastman, 81, passed away peacefully in her home on May 1, 2026. Born in Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, to Jane and Kenneth Raynor, she was a beloved and devoted wife, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, and teacher.

Sandy grew up in the Rochester, NY area and is a graduate of Colby College with a Bachelor's Degree in English Literature in 1966. She taught second- and third-grade students in the Brandywine School District in Wilmington, Delaware and was named Forwood Elementary School's Teacher of the Year in 1997. She was a member of P.E.O. International, Chapter H in Wilmington, Delaware, and Chapter GK in Green Cove Springs, Florida.

After retiring, she volunteered with the Magnolia Point Women's Club and sang with the Magnolia Singers, directed by her husband, Allen Eastman. She was known for her love of family, her gift of entertaining, and her devotion to creating lasting traditions. Her sausage balls, ginger dip, and Christmas cookie recipes were widely known and enjoyed by all. Summers were spent with her family on their sailboat, Happy Days, on the Chesapeake Bay.

She was preceded in death by her son, Chandler Raynor Eastman, and her sister, Dianne Raynor Morton. She is survived by her husband, Allen Eastman with whom she recently celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary; her daughter, Lauren Eastman; grandson, Blake Eastman; and the Raynor, Morton, and Long families.

A celebration of life will be announced in the coming weeks.

Her family is grateful to Community Hospice & Palliative Care for supporting her final days at home. Instead of flowers, donations may be made to the P.E.O. Foundation or the Foundation of Community Hospice & Palliative Care.

Tribute Wall

“ *We loved our annual visits with you and Allen in Chicoteague with the kids. So much fun in the sun and great family memories made. You will be missed!
Love you, Kim.*

Kim L Morton - May 21 at 12:43 PM