Scott Allen Clapper

January 28, 1971 - February 27, 2016

Scott Allen Clapper, age 45, formerly of Alexandria, Virginia, passed away on February 27, 2016 at Roberts Care Center in Palatka, FL. Born in Monterey, California, Scott grew up and lived most of his adult life in Alexandria, Virginia, the son of a naval officer. Scott was a 1989 graduate of West Potomac High School and attended Embry Riddle Aeronautical University in Daytona Beach. He started his career at Backyard Boats in Alexandria and then worked for many more years at Boat U.S. where he started in the Marine Center and then moved on as an Underwriter and Underwriting Supervisor for the company's insurance division. Scott enjoyed sailing, growing things in his garden, and cooking. He loved being on or near the water and spending time with his family at the beach. More than anything, Scott was a loving fiancé, father, son, and brother and he will be deeply missed. He is survived by his fiancé, Becky Reinaker of St. Johns; son, Landon Clapper of St. Johns; father, Joe Clapper of Roswell, Georgia; grandmother, Elma Clapper of Wernersville, Pennsylvania; sister, Rachel Hummel (Sean); and nieces, Lindsay, Allison, and Emily Hummel of Marietta, GA. In lieu of flowers, Scott requested contributions be made towards Landon's 529 college fund. Checks should be made payable to "CollegeAmerica" and please notate on the check or on a separate piece of paper that the contribution is for Landon Clapper's 529, Please mail checks to: BB&T Scott & Stringfellow, 12010 Sunset Hills Road,

“ As Scotts second grade teacher, I remember his smile, his curious mind, his desire to please, his loyalty to friends, his intelligence and his kindness. Scott will live on through Landon. I see the same smile. My heart aches for Landon, Becky, Joe and Rachel. Take good care of our boy, Sue.
