Sean Christopher Kissell

September 23, 1974 - September 24, 2011

Sean Christopher Kissell, 37, Jacksonville, died unexpectedly on Saturday September 24, 2011. He was born in Lima, Ohio, graduated from Blue Springs High School (Blue Springs, MO) Class of 1992 and had resided in this area for the past 10 years, moving here from Kansas City, MO. He worked as a pressman in the printing business for seventeen years. He was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church and was an active member of the Our Lady of Good Counsel Men's Club. Sean enjoyed spending time with his family and friends and was an avid fisherman. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held 6:00 p.m. Thursday September 29, 2011 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church with Rev. Guy Noonan, pastor, officiating. A visitation, beginning at 5:00 p.m., will precede the services. Flowers are gratefully declined and those wishing may make a contribution in his memory to Our Lady of Good Counsel Building Fund, 5005 Church Road, St. Augustine, FL 32092-0459. He is survived by his parents, Thomas and Helen Kissell, St. Augustine; paternal grandmother, Ethel Kissell, Columbus Grove, Ohio; brother, Scott Kissell and his wife, Sarah, St. Augustine; nephew and godson, Jack Kissell, St. Augustine; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and other relatives. St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ I was so sad to see Sean had passed away. He was in my class at St. Anthony's and always made me laugh. He used to call me smelly Nelly but he always followed it with "I'm just kidding." I'm very sorry for your loss and will be praying for your family.

*In the sea of love
Where everyone would love to drown
But now it's gone
They say it doesn't matter anymore
If you build your house
Then please, call me home
Sara
You're the poet in my heart
Never change, and don't you ever stop
Now it's gone
No it doesn't matter anymore
When you build your house
I'll come by*
