

Sean Warren Rasor

March 24, 1989 - January 4, 2024

It is with great sadness that the family of Sean Rasor announces his sudden passing on Thursday, January 4, 2024, at the age of 34.

Sean was born in Boynton Beach, FL and graduated from Santaluces High School. He grew up in Palm Beach County before moving to north Florida, where he met his loving wife, Ashley, of 10 years. He is also survived by his parents, Gregg and Patty; his sister, Maria (Edgeworth) and husband, Jimmy; nieces, Jade Donohue and Bella Edgeworth; cousin, Rachel Medick, brother-in-law, TJ and wife Sunny; nieces, Kennedy and Evelyn; sister-in-law Lydia and numerous uncles, aunts, cousins, many friends and job colleagues.

A strong Christian man, Sean loved life and could always brighten up a room with his presence. He learned how to cook while in high school and always loved preparing food for his family and friends, even growing his own vegetables and herbs. He served many residents of Saint Johns County with his cooking in various restaurants.

A celebration of life ceremony will be held at Geneva Presbyterian Church, 1755 State Road 13, Saint Johns, on Saturday, February 3 at 11 am. Family and friends will join together to remember Sean's impact on their lives.

In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Sean Rasor can be made payable

Our nephew, we have so many fond memories of him. He was smart, funny, and always a gentleman. He is so loved. We will miss him dearly.
