“ Sharon has been a long time Friend. She and her husband attended Church together with us for a long time. We knew each other as teenagers. A Beautiful person inside and out. My wife was privileged to work with her for many years at the Nursing Home. She will be missed. May God comfort the hearts of the Blanton Family at this time. Tony and Debi Bryant.

“ I remember what a beautiful smile she always had & what a sweet lady she was to everyone. We will keep all the family in prayer through this sad time. Sharon is with her Jesus now & in no more pain. Will see her again when Jesus calls us home.

My heart goes out to Norm and all the Blanton family in the loss of Sharon. What a precious, sensitive and loving person she was. I want to share this Poem the Lord gave me to the family. May it touch each one tenderly to know Jesus Loves and Cares for each of you.

LOVE OF JESUS

*Come to Jesus and bring Him your sorrows,
For it is He who has allowed you to borrow;
The Loved One He gave you for just a while,
So you could Live, Love, Laugh and Smile;
The years of Happiness that you have shared,
You will always remember when you sit in prayer;
God knows our lives from beginning to end,
He knows our path and what's around the bend;
Look to Jesus for the Strength you need,
For He's always there to intercede;
He will comfort you in the days ahead,
And dry your tears that you have shed;
Jesus, the Redeemer and Lifter of your head,
He waits to Love you with Arms Outspread;
Run to Jesus for Peace of mind,
He will show you Love that's truly Divine.

“ Even though I haven't seen Sharon in about 50 years, she was one of my BFF's in junior high and high school. I recall so much laughter, so many sleep overs, prank phone calls, and deep conversations of our future plans. I remember her mom always, always planting seeds to us about the Lord and her dad always trying to get us to quiet 🙏 down.

We reconnected on FB and through private messages a few years ago. Sharon remained that kind, sweet friend. Beautiful inside and out. We were able to “catch up” and unfortunately never able to “meet up” because life is busy.

I am so sad to learn of her death. My prayer to Norm and her family is that you know you were her life. She was so proud of you all and loved you all so much. May God bring you closer as you grieve. May you know she heard “Well Done Faithful Servant” yesterday and that we will see her again in heaven. I am praying for all of you

“ When we lived in Southgate, the Blantons moved in a few houses down from us. I swear my sister and I were at their house as much as we were at our own. I have very fond memories of this wonderful family. Sharon was a beautiful and loving woman and will be missed very much by all who loved her. Sending prayers and love to the entire Blanton family.

“ Sharon was a great neighbor for 32 years! She always had a smile and a good story to share (and had great advise, too). She watched our two oldest girls for three years and was such a great caregiver to them. We have great memories of her watching her grandchildren play and swim in the backyard and had many fun conversations "over the fence". She will be missed but we believe we will see her again. Love to Norm, Dave, Marc, Amy and Kristie and all of the grandchildren.
