“ We are all here today to pay our respects to an amazingly beautiful person, whose time here with us was cut far too short. My Aunt Sheree Acosta Tomko was one of the most wonderful people that I will ever know. She was one of my favorite Aunt's. She was full of life - feisty - and fun. When she walked in a room, you knew. To me, it was like someone turned a light on when she arrived. She had a wonderful smile and a laugh that couldn't help but elicit laughter from others. My favorite laughs were the ones that seemed virtually uncontrollable. She had a knack for recounting stories and would quickly have us all in stitches. She loved children and children seemed to love her back because she was so much fun. She had a special relationship with her dogs, I will miss you Aunt Sheree. Entill we meet agian Love Jerry.

“ I didn't know Sheree that well but I am a great friend of her sister Cindy Acosta. Cindy had nothing but great things to say about her. I bet she was a wonderful grandmother, mother, sister and most of all a great friend. I send my empathy and love to all surviving family members. May God comfort you all.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of mourning. As days go by just remember all of the precious moments that you have shared with this beautiful person we all know as Sheree. I know that everyone will miss her loving, vibrant spirit, but just think how much brighter heaven is now that she is there, and one day we will be with that loving, vibrant Sheree that we will always remember. I love you Joyce
