Silas L King

December 14, 1976 - February 20, 2018

Silas L. King, age 41, passed away on Tuesday, February 20, 2018. Silas was born and raised in St. Augustine. Silas will be remembered for his free spirit and his passion for music. He enjoyed taking his daughter, Amelia McGee, to music shows and was a talented guitarist himself. If you could not find Silas at a local concert he could be found downtown visiting old friends. Silas had a knack for remembering music trivia, and all things Tampa Bay Buccaneers! Silas was a dedicated employee at Barnes Farm for over a decade. He was preceded in death by his sister, Tanya King and his step-father, Randall King. Survivors include his fiancée, Virginia (Gin) Barnes; grandmothers, Joan King and Nancy Barnes; daughter, Amelia Mae McGee; sister, Randi Holmes; parents Debora (Ron) McNeely, Mark and Anne Barnes; brothers, Christopher (Heather) Barnes, and James (Rebekah) Barnes; his best friend, Michael Uhlar; and many other family and friends that cared deeply for Silas. Silas' wish for was for people to celebrate his life, not to mourn his passing. Memorial services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 24, 2018 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home. Flowers are gratefully appreciated or donations may be sent to the Rodeheaver Boys Ranch in Silas' honor: 380 Boys Ranch Rd, Palatka, FL 32177. Arrangements are under the care of St Johns Family Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ I only met Silas once, at a Dr. Glenos Halloween party, but his love for Amelia was so obvious and sweet. He was dancing with her, being so silly and goofy...his good vibes were contagious. For a person I only met briefly, he left a positive and lasting impression. The world is a little less groovy now that he is gone. My deepest sympathies to Ginnie and Amelia and to all those who knew Silas well.
