Silvio collected sports memorabilia and enjoyed attending NY Mets and Islander Games. He also enjoyed his garden where he grew fresh herbs and vegetables. In Flushing, NY, he became a self taught home remodel expert renovating their residence. In 2019, Silvio and Frances traveled all over Florida attending spring training events. Silvio was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Gianna and beloved Chihuahua, Cara. Silvio is survived by his spouse of 44 years, Frances; son, David Bosi and wife, Christina; grandsons, Nathan, Jake and Lucas; sister, Luisa in Italy; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and dear friends who will miss him dearly.
