Stanley Allison Andrew

April 20, 1936 - March 31, 2016

Stanley Allison Andrew, age 79, entered eternity on March 31, 2016 at The Bailey Center for Caring in St Augustine. Allison was not only born and raised in St Augustine, he was proud to be a Menorcan, tracing his family's heritage back to the original settlers of the city. He was a man of great faith and an active member of Anastasia Baptist Church. For many years he owned and operated Andrew's Market. The only thing he loved more than the Florida Gators was his family. His favorite activity was anything that involved his girls. As a father of two daughters and three granddaughters, he often joked that God knew his family only needed one good man. He is survived by his daughters and sons-in-law, Jeanie and Danny Carter and Cheri and Jerry Dedge, all of St. Augustine; his granddaughters and grandsons-in-law, Bailey and Robert Mullin of St Augustine, Lindsey and Braden Arcaro of Smyrna, GA and Sydney and Christopher Natto of Sneads Ferry, NC.; one great grandson Rhett Andrew Natto. He also leaves behind two very special cousins, Irvine and Andrew Morrison; as well as, a multitude of other family members and friends. Allison was preceded in death just 4 months ago by his wife of 53 years, Joan Andrew. He was also preceded by his parents, Stanley B. and Anne Andrew as well as one sister, Betty Jo Briggs. Services will be held at 2:00 pm on Saturday, April 2, at Anastasia Baptist Church with Dr. Walter West and Rev. Ron Moore officiating. A visitation, beginning at 1:00 pm, will precede the service. Interment will follow at Evergreen Cemetery. St Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
