

Steven Lee Slade

September 29, 1954 - August 4, 2024

Steven Slade, born on September 29, 1954, in Weymouth, Massachusetts, passed away peacefully on August 4, 2024. A quiet man with a deep love for literature, Steven found joy in listening to audiobooks. He cherished his time on the water, enjoying boating as a favorite pastime. In his younger years, he was a skilled cross-country runner, known for his dedication and athleticism.

Steven had a profound affection for his dog, Bear, as well as a passion for historical movies and documentaries, particularly those focused on World War I and II, reflecting his keen interest in war history. Despite his taciturn nature, children brought a special joy to Steven's life, revealing his gentle soul. He was married to Faith Slade for 11 years and lived with their close friend and caregiver Rick Williams. Steven was an avid golfer, spending as much time as possible on the golf course. He achieved a golfer's dream by making a hole-in-one at his favorite golf club in North Carolina.

Steven is survived by his beloved wife Faith Slade and their close friend Rick Williams of St. Augustine; his son Rickey Largen and husband Roy Largen of Hastings, Florida; his Son Kelly Williams and wife Haylie Williams of Palm Coast; and his cherished granddaughter Emma Williams of Palm Coast. He is also survived by his sister, Sharon Slade of Hendersonville, North Carolina, and dear family friends Sunny and Jim Matthews of Arden, North Carolina, along with countless friends and family members who were touched by his life.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Cora Slade. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to Community Hospice in Steven's honor.

Steven's life was a testament to quiet strength, deep love, and gentle kindness. His memory will be cherished by all who knew and loved him.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Steve will missed by us all. Sleep sweet Stevie Pooh. You was truly a loving and caring man and I'll miss you deeply. ”

---

Diane Annaruma - August 07, 2024 at 03:23 PM