Susan "Sue" Patalano (Corbett), known to her loved ones as "Nana", passed away peacefully on June 10th, 2021 in St. Augustine, Florida at the age of 68 years old. Nana is survived by her three children; Nick, Joe and Mike Patalano as well as her pride and joy, her grandchildren; Hannah, Olivia, Jack, Sam, Cameron, Brayden, and Ty Patalano.

Born in Medford, Massachusetts on September 10th, 1952 to her Mother, Margaret Corbett (Farren) (Gran Gran) and Father, Joseph Corbett (Pop), Sue graduated from St. Clements and continued to pursue a life full of accomplishments. Sue was the Controller at Mark of Unicorn Technology before supporting the family business as Vice President of Hi-Lo Supermarket. Nana will be remembered by all for her loyalty, intelligence, strength, and work ethic, which she has passed on to each and every single one of us.

“ I just found out about Susan's passing. I am so sorry. Our family loved her. We spent a lot of time together when we were all first married. I have many fond memories of our time together. When we came to Florida five years ago we had dinner together and started planning for a family reunion. This is so incredibly sad. May you Rest In Peace Susan. You will be missed.

“ Sue hired me at Mark of the Unicorn, Inc. (now dba MOTU, Inc.) in June of 1987, my first “real” job out of college. I am still working at MOTU today, 34 years later. Back then, who knew that Sue’s faith in me, a lanky 20-something just out of college (who didn’t know his a from a hole in the ground) would turn into my life’s work. I am certain Sue had a hunch. Around the time she left MOTU, she told me I should ask for a promotion and a raise. I will never forget her encouragement and belief in me. Sue was as sharp as a knife and the impact of her words could crack like a whip. To this day, I consider her to be one of the most impactful people I have ever known. I am deeply grateful for the fateful role she played in my life; while our time together as colleagues was brief, its impact on me has lasted a lifetime. My heart goes out to Nick, Joe, Mike, their families and Sue’s extended family. May you rest in peace, Sue. Godspeed.

Sue was our neighbor for too short a time. We enjoyed her intelligence, cooking and conversations. We shall miss her at the Promenade. Our sympathies to Sue's family, especially "her boys." Great lady.

I enjoyed a fun lunch with Sue at the Palencia Club when she joined the 9 hole golfers. She shared some funny stories of growing up which we many of us could relate to! She spoke very fondly of her sons and grandchildren. Thoughts and prayers to all the family. Jeanne and Jeff Carr
