

Teresa Paulina Comesana

March 8, 1932 - October 18, 2020

Teresa Paulina Martine Comesaña, age 88, of St. Augustine, passed away peacefully on October 18, 2020, at the Samantha Wilson Care Center at BayView. Teresa was born and raised in Havana, Cuba. She met and married Luis Comesaña and immigrated to the United States just before Fidel Castro took over Cuba. They settled in New York City where Teresa raised a family of five children. In the late 1970s, following the death of her husband, Teresa moved to Florida. After the untimely death of her oldest son, Teresa raised his only child as her own, along with her youngest son. She lived in Jacksonville, Orange Park, Orlando, North Carolina, and most recently St. Augustine. Teresa was a deeply spiritual woman. Her entire life was shaped by her faith in Jesus and her love for her family and friends. She loved laughing, spending time with her loved ones, eating Cuban food, and talking for hours. She was always “put together”, makeup, lipstick, hair done, and dressed to impress. She was a member of Anastasia Baptist en Espanol. She will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Luis, a son, Joseph, brothers, Raphael “Pepe” and Jose Martine, and her beloved mother Francisca Muiño. She is survived by daughters, Mary Dodd of Jacksonville, Eileen McKenzie (Scott) of Hilliard, Kelly Caceres (Elmer) and great-grandchildren Elmer, Nicolas, and Lucca of Jacksonville; sons, Richard Thomas of Hilliard, Henry Comesana of St. Augustine; 7 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

A celebration of Teresa’s life will be held at 12 noon on Thursday, October 29, 2020 at St. Johns Family Funeral Home with Pastor Gregorio Oyervides officiating. A visitation, beginning at 11 am will precede the service.

St. Johns Family Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
