In Loving Memory of Theresa Ann Cooley, Affectionately Known as "TT"

Born on February 12th, 2009, and raised in the warm embrace of Florida, TT brought immense joy and boundless happiness to all who were fortunate to know her. Despite her short time with us, she left an indelible mark on our hearts, forever reminding us of the beauty and resilience that can flourish in the face of adversity. On August 11th, 2023, our beloved TT departed from this world, leaving behind cherished memories that will forever remain etched in our hearts.

TT was a vivacious 14-year-old who lit up every room she entered with her radiant smile and infectious laughter. She found immense joy in the camaraderie of dining out at restaurants, where she cherished the happiness of her family's presence. Her dedication to therapy and her teachers showcased her determination and passion for life. She proved that even in the face of challenges, one could still find beauty and purpose. Shopping was another of her favorite activities, and her eyes would light up as she browsed through stores, discovering treasures that spoke to her artistic soul.

TT was a true artisan, pouring her heart and soul into her arts and crafts. Her creations were a reflection of her boundless imagination and her unwavering dedication. It's said that every piece she crafted held a piece of her ever-cheerful spirit. TT especially loved her dance class “Adaptive Dance Superstars” and all the friends she met and got to perform with along the way. She was very dedicated to her dance and absolutely loved performing on stage.

Family was everything to TT. She reveled in the company of her sisters, eagerly listening to their stories and laughter. The holidays held a special place in her heart, and her face would light up like a thousand stars as she celebrated these precious moments with her loved ones. She brought a unique sparkle to these gatherings, reminding us all of the true meaning of togetherness.

TT's love for babies and children was heartwarming, though her enthusiasm did waver when their cries echoed too loudly. Her sense of humor was unmatched, and she found light even in the most unexpected situations. Her strength was awe-inspiring, and she demonstrated this every day, proving that she was a fighter in every sense of the word. Through countless surgeries and appointments, TT never let it ruin her mood, and she would always weather any storm with a smile on her face. Her sunny disposition and general happiness were a testament to her beautiful soul, showing us that happiness could be found in the simplest of moments.

TT is survived by her parents, Candace and Kenneth; Guardian Parents, Latice and Darrell Polite; siblings, Joseph "Caleb" Milligan, Madison Milligan, Kylie Zoltowski, Kenneth Cooley; maternal grandparents, Edward and Beth Sullivan; paternal grandfather, Kenneth Cooley and Sonya Agosto; biological mother, Crystal Methvin; biological father, Timothy Tout; biological grandparents, Rich and Patty Farrell; biological siblings, Haley Steeves, Jacob and Elie Farrell; and paternal grandmother, Angel Cooley along with many loved numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

In her brief time with us, TT touched our lives deeply, teaching us to cherish each day, to find beauty in the ordinary, and to embrace life with unyielding determination. As we say goodbye to this remarkable young soul, let us remember her with love and gratitude, carrying forward the lessons she shared and the light she brought into our lives.

Rest in peace, dear TT. Your spirit will forever dance among us, reminding us to find joy in every action we make.
