It is with great sorrow that we announce the passing of Thomas Edmund Gibes, age 84 on December 13, 2025, in St. Augustine, FL. Tom was raised in Franklin WI, a suburb of Milwaukee. Tom worked in partnership with his father raising horses. He married Joanne Heintskill and together they raised four children. Tom loved sailing on the Great Lakes, recently a friend described Tom as “the spark plug of our sailing club”.

Throughout his life, Tom was a friend to all with a nonjudgemental heart and a joyful spirit. With an entrepreneurial spirit, Tom engaged in multiple businesses from retail to real estate. Relocating to St. Augustine in 2010, he opened Allegro Pool Supplies and Inspections. He then found his dream project in 2013; he purchased and extensively rehabbed a historic St. Augustine home. With his artistic flare, He also developed two Air BnB accommodations, “The Captain’s Quarters” and transformed a Airstream Trailer into a themed “Yellow Submarine” unit. Tom’s keen knowledge of St. Augustine’s history provided fireside entertainment for his guests; Tom thrived on the constant flow of new faces and he always had a story to share.

Tom and Diane Arsenault met in 2021, and they were married October 12, 2022. Their adventurous travels took them to England, France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Germany, Austria, Turkey, Greece, and Alaska.

“ Tom was my father and he taught me so much. Whether it was learning to canoe down the Wisconsin river, changing oil in a Plymouth Duster or doing yard work, he made sure I understood what to do, and most importantly what NOT to do. He also made things fun. All the time. His laugh could be heard from across any size room and his sense of fun was contagious. I will miss him very much. Godspeed Dad. May you rest in peace and love.
