“ A brief meeting, yet left an impression nonetheless. Loved his twinkling eyes and quick smile. That tells a lot about a man.

“ " Vision is the art of seeing things invisible." Jonathan Swift. You had that vision Thomas and if only you had allowed yourself to realize how deeply you are loved by many and what a true gift you are. Until next time ...Thank you for all that you be.

“ Thomas.....I so enjoyed the time we spent chatting on the phone during my long rides home from Naugatuck. If only we had the opportunity to meet in person.... You know I thought the world of you. If ever I get the opportunity to visit St. Augustine, I will go down by the water and certainly think of you. RIP in my friend.
