

Tiffany Elizabeth Willis

August 26, 1998 - February 22, 2022

Tiffany Elizabeth Willis, 23, of St Augustine, Florida, died in a tragic motor vehicle accident Tuesday, February 22nd, 2022. Tiffany was born to parents Lisa Ann Stonier and Peter Vincent Spengler on August 26th, 1998, in Jacksonville, FL. She grew up in Mandarin and later moved to St Augustine where she attended and graduated high school in 2017. After graduation Tiffany attended classes at St Johns River State College. She was a faithful employee of Publix from the time she was 15, working at both the Johns Creek and Palencia locations and touched many peoples lives through out her time there. Tiffany was currently working at the Conch House restaurant in St Augustine.

Tiffany was lover of any and all creatures. She enjoyed plants and flowers; an appreciation cultivated from a young age by her “Nonny” whom she loved dearly. Tiffany was a very sincere, open, and loving girl to anyone she would meet. She cared deeply about people and loved well. She valued and embodied the quality of loyalty to those around her. She had a very gentle, sensitive, and nurturing spirit. More than anything, Tiffany was a loving daughter, caring sister, lively aunt, and a fiercely devoted friend to many. She will be deeply missed.

Tiffany was preceded in death by her father, Peter Spengler; her little brother, Hayden Willis; her beloved grandmother “Nonny”, Elizabeth Stonier; and her stepfather, William “Rocky” Willis. She is survived by her mother, Lisa Conn; her sisters, Kaili Hines and Abigail “Abi” Willis-Clark; her niece Hazel; and her cat “Mouse” and ferret “Minky”.
